Safety and Warning Instructions

- Stainless steel tables are intended for indoor use only and should be placed on a stable, level, and non-slip surface.
- During assembly and use, ensure that load capacities are not exceeded to prevent deformation or damage.
- Children and unauthorized persons must not misuse the tables, hang from them, or stand on them.
- Adjustable feet should only be adjusted when the tables are completely unloaded to avoid injuries or instability.
- Do not use aggressive or abrasive cleaning agents on the tables to protect the stainless steel surface.
- During transport, ensure the tables are properly secured to prevent damage to the structure or connections.
- The tables are intended exclusively for professional use in gastronomic or similar environments. Any other use may cause damage and void the warranty.
- Do not apply sharp or pointed objects with pressure on the surface, as this can cause scratches or deformations.
- If visible damage or unstable connections are observed, do not load the table. Inspect the construction or contact qualified personnel for assistance.
